PREAMBLE

The Gossner Evangelical Lutheran Church (GEIC) shortly named as the Gossner Church was established when the four Missionaries sent by Fr. J.E. Gossner of Berlin erected their tents on 2nd November, 1845 at the present GEIC Centre at Ranchi. Gossner Church was inaugurated with the baptism of a girl (Martha) on 25th June, 1846, followed by other children of Missionary and some local parents. But the mass conversion movement started after the baptism of four Oraons on 9th June, 1850, the baptism of two Mundas on 26th October, 1851, the baptism of forty Bengalees from the village Illu Jargo in 1855, and the baptism of two Kharias on 8th June, 1866. In this way the church expanded in North
