To

Smt Julia Tirkey,
w/o Late Lawrance Tirkey,
c/o Shri J. Horo, Supervisor.

Subject:-Appointment of Shri Santiel Tirkey.

Madam,

In your application dated 3.1.75 on the subject mentioned above, you have stated that Late Tirkey left five sons and one daughter behind you whereas you had shown 3 sons & one daughter in the statement of family details furnished on 31.1.75. The Comptroller and Auditor of India is desirous to know the reason of discrepancy and the correct position in this regard.

It is, therefore, requested that the correct position may be intimated to this office at an early date. It may also be intimated why you have not sought for appointment of your eldest son.

Yours faithfully,

B. Lakra
(B . Lakra)
Accounts Officer, Bihar.

To,

The Chairman,
Bihar Civil Audit & Accounts Office
Co-operative Society Ltd, Ranchi-2

Subject:- Sanction of grant from the Benevolent Fund.

Sir,
I am to state that my husband
Late Lawrence Turkey Selection Grade Auditor,
Office of the A.G. Bihar, Ranchi expired on the 20th December 1974 leaving me behind with two adult boys and two minor children wholly dependent on me. My husband was a member of the Co-operative Society and had 14 (fourteen Shares)

It hardly needs mention that I have hardly any means of live hood. My family
Pension and D.C.R. Gratuity are yet to be finalized.
I am having acute hardship in maintaining my family in these hard days.

So, I pray for your kindly help
at this juncture by grant from the ^{mutual} Benevolent
Fund of the Society on compassionate grounds.
I also request you to kindly arrange to refund the share money of the Society owned by my husband Late Lawrence Turkey.

Yours faithfully

Subject: - Employment of Sri ~~Santil~~ Santiel
Turkey son of late Lawrence Turkey
S. G. Ar. on Compassionate grounds

Sir,

With humble submission I most respectfully beg to state that my husband late Lawrence Turkey, S. G. Ar. expired on 20.12.74. Leaving behind myself and five sons and one daughter. My husband ^{livelihood} ~~sustenance~~ who was the only source of our ~~sustenance~~ has now left us for ever. I have ~~scarcely~~ barely any means to support this big family. I have two small babies aged one year and three years. I have not read in any school and it is difficult for me to find a job for myself.

I, would, therefore, request you to be so kind as to give a suitable employment to my son Samuel Turkey (aged twenty years) who is at present a student of second year Commerce in the Jogoda College, Ranchu.

For this act of your kindness
I shall ever remain grateful to you.

FORM FOR APPLICATION FOR FINAL WITHDRAWAL OF PROVIDENT FUND ACCUMULATIONS.
 GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS.

1. Urgency :—The application should be treated as urgent by all concerned at all stages.
2. Gazetted Government servants :—(a) When the applicant for refund is the subscriber himself, and a gazetted Government Servant, he should fill in all items in the form of application and send it on to the head of the department.
 (b) The head of the department shall see that all the information required in the form of application has been supplied, complete the certificate on the forwarding memo. regarding the grant of an advance within 12 months preceding the date of the officer's retirement and, except in the cases mentioned in 2 (c) below, forward the application direct to the Accountant-General, Bihar.
 (c) In the cases falling under any of the four categories (i) to (iv) below, the application should be forwarded to Government in the administrative department concerned, viz :—
 (i) when the subscriber being a gazetted Government servant applied for any advance under rule 15 (3) (a) of the General Provident Fund (Bihar) Rules within 12 months preceding the date of his retirement;
 (ii) when the subscriber was governed by the Indian Civil Service Provident Fund Rules;
 (iii) when the subscriber was governed by the General Provident Fund (Superior Civil Service) Rules; and
 (iv) when the subscriber elected to join the sterling branch of the Provident Fund.
 (d) The administrative department of Government shall in the cases of applications falling within category (iii) alone verify whether any advance was granted to the subscriber within 12 months preceding the date of his retirement and forward the application direct to the Accountant-General, Bihar, after completing the certificate in the forwarding memo. In other cases, i. e., applications falling within categories (i), (ii) and (iv) above, the administrative department shall first ascertain from the Finance Department what amount of advance, if any, was sanctioned to the Government servant by the Finance Department within 12 months preceding the date of his retirement, complete the certificate in the forwarding memo., and forward the application to the Accountant-General through the Finance Department after noting "Consulted U. O." on the margin of the memo.
3. Non-gazetted Government servants :— (a) When the applicant for refund is the subscriber himself and a non-gazetted Government servant, the head of the office in which the subscriber last worked should fill in the form, complete the certificate in the forwarding memo., after verifying whether any advance was granted to the subscriber within 12 months preceding the date of his retirement, and forward the application direct to the Accountant-General, Bihar, except in the cases mentioned in 3 (b) below.
 (b) When a subscriber had applied for an advance under rule 15 (3) (a) of the General Provident Fund (Bihar) Rules within 12 months preceding the date of his retirement the application should be forwarded to the head of the department who, after verifying the application and completing the certificate in the forwarding memo., will forward the application to the Accountant-General, Bihar.
 (c) If the subscriber wants payment at a place other than that in which he last worked, the application should be accompanied with three slips containing the specimen signature, left-hand thumb and finger impressions, and personal marks of identification of the payee duly attested by the head of the office or by a Magistrate.
4. Payment after death of a subscriber :— If the final payment has been necessitated by the death of a subscriber (whether a gazetted or a non-gazetted Government servant) the head of the office shall fill in items 1 to 8 of the form of application, and forward it to the head of the department. At the same time he should send a direct and immediate intimation of the death of the subscriber, together with his Provident Fund Account number, to the Accountant-General, Bihar, who will advise the head of the department what further action should be taken.

Note :— When the subscriber is himself the head of an office and/or head of a department, his successor in office should be treated as the head of office and/or head of department for the purpose of forwarding the application to the proper authorities.

Form of application for final withdrawal of Provident Fund accumulations.

1. Name of the subscriber with designation (in block letters).
2. Account no. (The correct number should, if possible be verified from the statements furnished to the depositors by the accounts office from year to year.)
3. (i) The actual date, forenoon or afternoon, of retirement, death, dismissal, resignation, or discharge [cut out the items not required].
 (ii) In the case of dismissal—
 (a) Whether the subscriber has appealed or intends to appeal against the orders of dismissal.
 (b) If the appeal has been rejected, the date of rejection.
 (c) If no appeal has been filed yet, the date on which the time limit for filing an appeal will expire.
 (iii) In case of resignation, it should be stated whether the resignation has been accepted.
 (iv) In case of discharge, the reason for the same should be stated.
4. Name of the Treasury where payment is desired.

To,

The P.A. to Assistant, Director,
Health Services(F.C.) Bihar, Patna.

Sir,

As per this Office Letter No. 194 dated 26/5/75 & F.O's Letter No. 207 dated 30/5/75 my representation for cancellation of transfer to Dhanbad. I beg to state the following fact for your kind and generous consideration.

In this connection I have to state that before 8 months I had already told Dr. S. S. Paul, Filaria Officer and Mr. Sameem Ahmed Asstt. Entomologist F.C.U. Ranchi that my father has been suffering from Paralysis and become invalid and my old mother also invalid to even walk from her residence to other place due to old age and weakness. Both of them are invalid, bed ridden and counting their last days.

I as the sole member to look after them can not leave them at this stage and at the same time can not take them to the place where I have been transferred.

Second reason of my inability to move is that my children are studying here at Ranchi due to low pay during this scarcity period I have been unable to pay the expence of two things i.e. treatment of my parents, fees and maintenance charge of my family. If I go to Dhanbad I can not maintain my family with this meagre pay out side and look after my parents.

Thirdly there are several employee to my post who are far senior to me in service and they have no family here at Ranchi to maintain. As the transfer has been made on seniority basis, I am the junior most employee, but I have been selected to be transferred.

As you had already assured Mr. Albert Gari and me that there would be no transfer order specially for Chhotanagpur when you had been here on tour with Asstt. Director.

Further I beg to state by inferring my transfer order I may not be compelled to resign my post, as to leave my helpless parents at this stage is to murder them alive.

Under the above circumstances I request you earnestly to arrange my transfer cancelled. I would be very much thankful to you for your generous and helpful work in my trouble.

Kindly convey our greetings to your family members and our good wishes to all children.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully,

Second reason of my inability to move is that my children are studying here at Ranchi due to low pay during this scarcity period I have been unable to pay the expense of two things i.e. treatment of my parents, fees and maintenance charge of my family. If I go to Dhanbad I can not maintain my family with this meagre pay out side and look after my parents.

Thirdly there are several ~~employees~~ employees to my post who are far senior to me in service and they have no family here at Ranchi to maintain. As the transfer has been made on seniority basis, I am the junior most employee, but I have been selected to be transferred.

As you had already assured Mr. Albert Gari and me that there would be no transfer order Specially for Chhotanagpuri when you had been here on tour with Asstt. Director, Further I beg to state by enforcing my transfer my order I may not be compelled to resign my post, as to leave my helpless parents at this stage is to murder them alive.

Under the above circumstances I request you earnestly to arrange my transfer cancelled. I would be very much thankful to you for your generous and helpful work in my trouble.
