Camp Bangalore

23-10-26.

My dear Cannaday,

I am writing out details about the Lutheran Convention to be held at Rajahmundry Dec. 27 to 29. We hope that Rev. Paradesi and Mr. V. Ch. John will speak strongly about the Publication Board.

From the Gossner people we desire the following:

(1) One man to introduce besides J.D. Asirvadam, the subject "The Constitution of the proposed Federation". J.D.A. can give the details. But one Indian from the Gossner field should express their sympathy for the Federation. (2) We want one man from Gossner to speak on the subject: Is greater uniformity in our form of worship desirable and possible? One Tamil man would introduce the subject beside a Gossnerman. We know that the Common Prayerbook is a source of strength in the Anglican Church. Can we similarly in our form of worship come closer to each other? At least at services in English? Let a Gossnerman give a description of the leading thoughts in the service order as used there and arouse some interest in greater uniformity. A Comm may be appointed to work at it in greater detail. (3) If Mr. D. Panna can come we desire him to preside at one session.

May I now request you to approach the suitable men for the two subjects mentioned and give me their names and also let me know whether Mr. Panna can come. If I get your answer orally at the N.C.C. meeting it is sufficient, so you need not bother to write. I hope you will come yourself also. We would miss you greatly otherwise.

Yours sincerely

(Sd) J. Sansegren.

Messrs DM Panna & Rsturad.

Will you kindly take a subject each from the above?

That this Conference realising that the time has come to bring about the association of all the Lutheran Churches in India in a Federation to be termed "The Evangelical Lutheran Church in India", recommend that the Convener of this Conference take steps to bring together representatives of the various Churches in a Convention to be held preferably in December 1926 to determine the Constitution of this proposed united body.

And that as soon as possible the Managing Committee of the All India Lutheran Conference draw up a simple Constitution granting to the proposed "Evangelical Lutheran Church in India" only such powers as would in no way impair the autonomy of the constituent bodies, and submit the same to the Churches for their consideration before the meeting of the convention.

The proposed Constitution of the "Ev. Lutheran Church in India" was read and approved with the following changes:

1. Preamble, Section 3 - add after "one another" -- and while praying for the Unity of all believers in Christ.

Section 4 -- all Evangelical Lutheran Churches (Synods) in India--

Note -- to be deleted

2. Article II, Section 4 --- A discussion arose as to whether Section 4 should be retained or deleted or redrafted.

As reason for retaining it unchanged was mentioned that the Gossner Ev. Luth. Church, the Andhra Ev. Luth. Church and the Tamil Ev. Luth. Church have that formulation in their Doctrinal Basis. Further, though it does not bind the Church to the books mentioned there, it is wise to enumerate them as they not only indicate an important phase in the development of the Ev. Luth. section of the Christian Church but also signify the heritage we have in common with other Ev. Luth. Churches.

Against the retaining of the Section 4 was stated -- The need of greater simplicity, the undesirability to insist on the ~~said~~ said books in an Indian Church and the unnecessary of the section as section 3 states that we accept as Ev. Lutheran Sister Churches those that hold the Unaltered Augsburg Confession. Even if certain of the constituent bodies, as the Gossner, the Andhra and Tamil Ev. Luth. Churches, have Section 4, there is no need to impose it on all those bodies which (as e.g. the Santal Mission) would not favour it.

It was also proposed to change the wording of Section 4 that its non-committal character became more apparent.

As unanimity was not achieved it was resolved to refer the question to the different Churches and to place the whole correspondence before the Conference to be called about New Year 1927.

3. Article III --- to be deleted

1. Basis.

That the confessional basis of this College be that of the proposed constitution of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in India which we hope to establish, to wit:

(b) We accept as important testimonies drawn from the Holy Scriptures, the three ecumenical Creeds: namely, the Apostles, the Nicene, and the Athanasian, and reject all errors which they condemn.

(c) We receive and hold the Unaltered Augsburg Confession as a correct exhibition of the faith and doctrine of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, founded upon the Word of God; and acknowledge all Churches that sincerely hold and faithfully confess the doctrines of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession to be entitled to the name—Evangelical Lutheran.

(d) We recognise the Apology of the Augsburg Confession, the Smalkald Articles, the Larger and Smaller Catechisms of Luther, and the Formula of Concord, as in the harmony of one and the same pure Scriptural faith.

2. Participating Bodies.

That the Evangelical Lutheran bodies in India accepting the above confessional basis be invited to take part in the work of this College.

That though in the first place Evangelical Lutheran bodies in the Telugu and Tamil areas are expected to take active part in the College, other Evangelical Lutheran bodies also be welcome to have a corresponding share in rights and duties.

3. Property.

That all property given for the use of the College shall be held by the College Council. If at any time a participating body withdraws, it shall relinquish its rights; it being left to the College Council to consider whether compensation for initial outlay should be paid.

N. B.—If necessary the property may during the experimental stage be held by the original owner.

The College Council shall be registered.

5. Management.

(a) College Council: The affairs of the College shall be conducted by the College Council. N. B.—(i) At least $\frac{1}{3}$ of the membership shall be Indian.

My dear Sandegren,

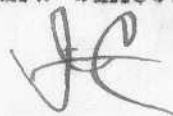

Many thanks for two copies (not addressed to me) of the meeting of the Man. Comm. of the AILC in Mds on 12-2-26.

A few remarks--

1. I am delighted with the progress made--it is fine! x other
2. Nothing was said about the matters on the agenda of the meeting--United Seminary, Literature Board, etc. Why not?
3. This minute (Sec. 3) says--"The proposed Constitution of the 'Ev. Lutheran Church in India' was read," etc. May I inquire what that proposed constitution is and where it is? What is given here is merely a few amendments. Where is the whole constitution as amended? Without that we are in the dark!!
4. I received two copies, as noted above--one marked "Rev. B. Minz" (which I shall pass on) and the other marked "Rev. J. P. Gausdal." I shall see that he gets it, but may I have a copy also?

With kind regards and best wishes, I am,

Yours sincerely,

that you as Convener with your genius for reconciling opposing parties will find some way out.
With all best wishes for successful meetings, I remain,

My dear Sandegren,

Many thanks for your letter (undated) concerning the meetings in Madras on the 11th and 12th. I sent it on at once to the Secy of the Church Council and he now returns it with the information that he has replied to you direct, as you had sent him a copy of the letter also.

I am sorry we cannot have any representative present at your meetings, as they are most important. However, you understand it is not due to any lack of interest, but to lack of finances only.

I hope that some of the Gossner representatives will send you their written opinions. As for me, you know know my sentiments pretty well. I am wholeheartedly in favour of both the United Seminary and the United Church. I think the chief difficulty in both cases will be to harmonize the views of the liberal Danes with those of the more conservative Americans. Perhaps the Swedes will mediate between the two. As for Ohio and Missouri--I think they will not and cannot, at the present, at least, come into any union enterprise.

As for the Danes, I should like to see them in by all means, but if you cannot reconcile them to a reasonably conservative basis demanded by the more conservative brethren, then it might be best to go ahead without them, though I, personally, should regret this very much. However, wonders can be accomplished by prayer and concilia-

REV. J. SANDEGREN,
CONVENER, Madura.

Madras, 4th January, 1926.

To
The President,
Gossner Ev. Lutheran Church,
R a n c h i.

Dear Sir,

We appreciate the interest of your Church for Lutheran union evinced by sending several delegates all the way to Madras to the A.I.L.C. and hope that the mutual connections between Lutherans in the different parts of India will steadily increase. At the Conference I was appointed convener of a Committee to which each Lutheran body participating in the Conference is asked to send two representatives in order to investigate possibilities of opening next year in Madras a common Theological College. This Committee will probably meet next month at Madras. Though I fear that the long distance may not make it possible for your Church often to send two men to Committee meetings, I still hope that you at least will appoint one man as corresponding member to whom the findings of the Committee meetings may be submitted and who can give at least written advice if he cannot, as a rule, attend the meetings. If your Church is willing to appoint one or two men I shall be glad to get their names before the next Committee meeting.

Yours sincerely,

J Sandegren

Dear Mr Minz,

My recollection is that several days ago I sent you a letter from Rev. J. Sandegren, calling a meeting of the Committee on United Seminary (or Church?) in Madras early in Feby and that I asked you to let me know what reply I should give to Mr Sandegren. Am I right? I have not yet heard from you about this matter and it is only a few days until the time of the meeting, according to my recollection.

Yours sincerely,
